I've been Joni's student for months now, and my experience has been amazing! Joni is not only professional, but her understanding of how the human voice is made and manipulated is astounding. I signed up because I was curious to see if I could be any good at all. But as the sessions went on, I got to see how Joni was more than just a "voice doctor." She has been an amazing coach. Her lessons helped me get past my insecurities about performing and gave me the confidence to turn this curiosity into opportunities.

I am not a natural singer. I have recordings of me when I was 14 to prove I started out wanting to be John Frusciante/Jimi Hendrix on the electric guitar. Then I heard Ben Harper and Jeff Buckley and my world was changed.

Joni Wilson taught me everything I know about singing technique. She even taught me for free for a while when I was a broke mess, because she believed in me. She the kindest, most wonderful person. If you have any interest in knowing how to sing correctly (as in so you wont damage your voice) please look her stuff up on google or go to her website:

You helped get me through the good times and bad times and the times I left upset or the times we left celebrating because we progressed. Thank you for everything ❤️❤️ — with Joni Wilson (requested tag).
